The UReCA Moment

The Journal of Undergraduate Research and Creative Activity, UReCA, is nationally recognized and sponsored by the National Collegiate Honors Council (NCHC) The only student-led and peer-reviewed journal for undergraduates, UReCA showcases competitive multidisciplinary works produced by honors students from across the US.

UReCA's mission is to foster the exchange of intellectual and creative work among undergraduate students, providing a platform where students can engage with and contribute to the advancement of their individual fields. UReCA is continuously seeking submissions in research and creative categories including: STEM, video, visual art, creative (poetry, fiction), Humanities, Health and Professional Sciences, Business and Commerce, and Social and Behavioral Sciences.
